Cranberry Marketing Committee means the eight member panel that administers the Cranberry Marketing Order authorizing volume control through producer allotments.

Cranberry Marketing Order means the order regulating the handling of cranberries grown in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Oregon, Washington, and Long Island in the State of New York. The order is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937.

Department or USDA means the United States Department of Agriculture.

Farm Unit means a separate and distinct farming operation that reports independent production information to the Cranberry Marketing Committee.

Person means any individual, group of individuals, partnership, corporation, estate, trust association, cooperative, or other business enterprise or other legal entity who is, or whose members are, a citizen of, or legal resident alien or aliens in the United States.

Secretary means the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture or any other officer or employee of the Department who has been delegated the authority to act in the Secretary's stead with respect to the program established in this part.

United States means the 50 States of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

§ 1476.4 Eligibility.

(a) To be eligible to receive cash payments under this part, a cranberry farm unit must:

(1) Have produced cranberries in the United States anytime during the 1999 crop year;

(2) Not have been compensated for the same loss by any other Federal programs, except an indemnity provided under a policy or plan of insurance offered under the Federal Crop Insurance Act (7 U.S.C. 1501).

(3) Be engaged in the business of producing and marketing agricultural products at the time of application for payment.

(4) Apply for payments during the application period.

(b) A cranberry farm unit must submit a timely application and comply with all other terms and conditions of this part and instructions issued by CCC, as well as comply with those instructions that are otherwise contained in the application to be eligible for benefits under this part.

§ 1476.5 Payment application, time, and method.

(a) Payments in accordance with this part shall be made available to eligible cranberry producers based on information provided on a Cranberry Market Loss Assistance Payment Program Application, CCC-890.

(b) Payment applications must be received within the program application period announced by CCC.

(c) Cranberry Market Loss Assistance Payment Program applications may be obtained from the CCC and PSD, in person, by mail, by telephone, or by facsimile. In addition, applicants may download a copy of the Form CCC-890 at <http://www.usda.gov/dafp/psd>. In order to participate in the program authorized by this part, cranberry producers must execute the Cranberry Market Loss Assistance Payment Program Application and forward the completed original to PSD as directed on the application.

§ 1476.6 Applicant payment quantity.

(a) The applicant's payment quantity of cranberries will be determined by the CCC, based on the 1999 crop of cranberries that was produced on each farm unit, as provided by the Cranberry Marketing Committee or obtained by CCC, with the agreement of the applicant.

(b) The maximum quantity of the 1999 crop of cranberries for which producers are eligible for a payment for a farm unit under this part shall be 1,600,000 pounds.
